THE SWISS COUNTRY HOUSE

DISCOVER THE CHÂTEAU DE PRANGINS AND ITS HISTORY

Meet the English Baroness Matilda Guiguer née Cleveland and explore the history of a baronial estate of the 18th century on the shores of Lake Geneva. Immerge yourself into the daily activities and the lifestyle of a baron, not only inside their Château, but also in their kitchen garden. The Château de Prangins is offering the following guided tours in English (included in the entrance price):

The Historical Kitchen Garden

The kitchen garden is a conservatory dedicated to preserving old regional varieties and showcasing domestic biodiversity. Nearly 200 varieties are cultivated over 5,500 m² (fruits, vegetables, medicinal plants, etc.).
